Select a level of Support

- General Support—$100, $250, $500 or more. Gifts to the Press's Foundation account support general operating expenses or grow the Press's endowment. Gifts may be earmarked for specific uses; contact us to discuss.
- Title Subsidies—$1000 to $15,000. Funding for individual titles. Consult our latest catalog, visit us online at www.kentstateuniversitypress.com, or call us and let us know which title(s) you would like to support.
- General Endowment—$10,000 or more. Donations will be used to grow the Press's endowment. Income from the endowment provides critically needed support for general Press operations.
- Named General Endowment—$60,000 or more. Income from a new named endowment will underwrite individual books in any field, at the Press's discretion.
- Named Endowment for a Subject Area—$100,000 or more. Income from this endowment will support books in a field in which the Press has already established its leadership, or in one that the Press wishes to develop to complement its existing strengths.
- Named Endowment for a Series—$100,000 or more. The Press publishes books in the following series: Black Squirrel Books; Civil War in the North; Cleveland Theater; Democracy Symposia; Literature and Medicine; New Studies in U.S. Foreign Relations; Reading Hemingway; Sacred Landmarks; Teaching Hemingway; Translation Studies; True Crime History; Violence Prevention, Intervention, and Policy; Voices of Diversity; and Writing Sports.
- Named Leadership Endowment—$100,000 or more. By allowing the Press to offer competitive advances and royalties and thereby attract highly sought authors, income from a leadership endowment will support major books that promise to have a profound impact on scholarship and society. Alternatively, a Named Leadership Fund of $50,000 or more, used directly for advances and royalties rather than invested as an endowment, would support ten or twelve books in this way.

Donors interested in learning more about how their support will advance the Press's mission are invited to contact Kent State University Press Director Will Underwood to discuss their gift. Please call (330-672-8094), email at wunderwo@kent.edu, or write to the address provided at the top of this page.
